

NEW AND RENEWAL MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The National Hand Dance Association is open to soliciting and accepting applications for new and renewing members.

NHDA Individual MEMBERSHIP Includes:

- Bi-Monthly Membership Meetings
- NHDA Committee Activities
- Member Newsletter
- Area Club and Hand Dance Class Listings
- Monthly Calendar of Events
- Membership Card/Certificate
- Participation in community service hand dance demonstrations.
- Discounts to selected NHDA Activities and Events
- Participate in special cultural and art events, dances and cabarets as representatives of NHDA.

MEETINGS: General membership meetings are held bi-monthly. Location, dates & times TBA.

Individual Membership is for those who wish to join as members under the Washington, D. C. and Metropolitan Area Chapter. Individual Members are entitled to all rights listed under the by-laws of The National Hand Dance Association. By-Laws are distributed by request and are housed at NHDA Headquarters.

Youth Membership and Young Adult Membership is designed for youth from ages 7 years to 19 years old and young adults from ages 20 to 30 years old. Young adults have the option of joining the Young Adult Membership or the individual general membership, which includes members from 20 years and up. The youth and young adult membership is under the Youth Affairs division of NHDA, and hand dance related activities are age appropriately designed. Note: Youth who can Hand Dance are encouraged to join, but NHDA will accept youth who, at the time of joining, do not Hand Dance but are willing to learn and participate in NHDA youth committees and activities.

Affiliate Membership is for any autonomous organization acting in a subsidiary capacity to NHDA. Organizations will be able to join NHDA as affiliate members by providing a specific service that relates to the goals and mission of NHDA (to preserve, educate, and promote the African American art form of Hand Dance). Affiliate members shall support and assist NHDA in its activities (fundraising events, community services, etc.) and NHDA will provide support to its Affiliates, as needed by the Affiliate. Must be approved.

All memberships cover a term of one (1) year from the date of receipt of application and membership dues.
